DIVESTED OF ALL responsibilities and sent to leave last month, CBI Director Alok Verma told the Supreme Court Thursday that he had been appointed for a fixed tenure of two years and could not be transferred. He said the government's October 23 decision to divest him of his responsibilities amounted to a transfer.

The Centre, on the other hand, maintained that it had the powers to divest Verma of his responsibilities till completion of an enquiry against him.

Attorney General K K Venugopal told the bench of Chief Justice of India Ranjan Gogoi and Justices S K Kaul and K M Joseph that the action did not amount to transfer so as to necessitate any reference to the selection committee comprising the Prime Minister, Leader of Opposition and Chief Justice of India.

The bench, meanwhile, made it clear it was not going into allegations and counter-allegations at this stage and would only look into the question of law on whether the government had the power to initiate action. It will hear the arguments next on December 5.

When senior advocate Kapil Sibal, appearing for Congress leader Mallikarjun Kharge sought to refer to the "allegations and counter-allegations", CJI Gogoi said: "We are not going into those allegations at this stage. We are only treating it as a proposition of law."

Senior advocate Fali S Nariman, representing Verma, said the government could not touch the Director without the prior sanction of the committee. At this, Venugopal told the bench that the committee only had the task of "selection" of suitable candidates for the post of Director and it was the job of the government to "appoint" one of them.

"Government has all control over the actual appointee for the simple reason that he has already been appointed. Therefore, requiring the committee to decide on everything about the appointee does not arise," Venugopal said.

Referring to the bitter fight between Verma and CBI Special Director Rakesh Asthana which culminated in the October 23 order divesting both of their charges, Venugopal said: "The CBI was being disgraced."

He said Verma was still the CBI Director and
